O2. Shouldn't Jio pay RCom's AGR dues, SC asks Centre again

Thehindubusinessline – August 17 , 2020

The Supreme Court on Monday again sought to know the government's position on making Reliance Jio liable for Reliance Communications' adjusted gross revenue (AGR) dues on account of the former using the spectrum shared by the latter.

On Friday, the SC had asked the Centre if Jio can be held liable for AGR and other dues of RCom, as Jio has been earning revenue by using RCom's assets (800 MHz band) under an asset-sharing agreement.
